

Imagine that you have been visited by a genie. Think about what you would wish for. Now write a story about the time your wishes came true.

"Cough! Cough!" I waved my arms to clear the smoke that was pouring from the opening of the lantern. What could be happening? All I was doing was cleaning my room ^{yesterday}. All of a sudden, a genie appeared in front of me in the midst of all that smoke.

When I realized ↓

Star

asked if he could grant wishes

want to be a famous singer

sang a song for him

begged to stop and he would grant my wish

After he granted

rich

pay for all of the things I already had donate money to a school for supplies

travel all over the world

donate money to homeless

Finally,

mansion

have parties for my friends

humongous sleepover

President Obama visit me

room for my family

As soon as he granted my last wish, the genie disappeared in another cloud of smoke that ^{was} quickly vacuumed into the lamp. I thought back on the day and was very satisfied with the things I had chosen.

"Cough! Cough! I waved my arms in front of my face to clear the smoke that was pouring from the opening of the lantern. What could be happening? All I was doing was cleaning my room yesterday. All of a sudden, a genie appeared in front of me in the midst of all that smoke.

When I realized there was a genie standing in front of me, I knew I could have my lifelong dream of being a star. Before I knew what I was asking, I asked him if he would grant three wishes like all the genies in the stories. I told him that all my life I wanted more than anything to be a famous singer. "Listen to me sing! I am so good I could be on X Factor!" So I sang my favorite song as loud as I could. The genie covered his ears with his huge hands, and begged me to stop. He promised that he would make me a famous singer if I stopped singing immediately.

After he granted my first wish, he told me I had two more, so I better make them good. The first thing that came to mind was that I wanted to be rich. Once I received all my money, I was able to pay for all of the things I already have. Now, I can take my extra money and use it to travel the world and visit places like Paris, Guatemala, and Japan. More than anything, I will be able to use my money for good purposes like helping out schools in my town. I can also donate money to the homeless.

Finally, the genie granted my third wish, which was that I wanted a huge mansion. If I could have a huge mansion, I would be able to have gigantic parties at my house where I would be able to invite all my friends. We could have the most elaborate sleepovers you could ever imagine. My house would even be big enough that if President Obama came to town, he would be able to stay at my house instead of a hotel. Most importantly, I would have plenty of room for all my family to be with me.

As soon as the genie granted my last wish, he disappeared in another cloud of smoke that was quickly vacuumed into the lamp. I thought back on my day, and was very satisfied with the things I had chosen.

Final copy due Tuesday!
It may be hand-written or typed. We will have 2
more 45 minute class
periods to work on it.